

N26 Rejection Letter

Hi {{CANDIDATE_FIRST_NAME}},

First and foremost, thank you for your interest in N26. We know that a lot of time and effort goes into a job application, and we appreciate that you took the time to apply for the {{JOB_NAME}} role. We were very fortunate to have a strong group of applicants to consider for this role, and unfortunately have decided to move forward with other candidates.

That said, we hope you don't mind if we reach out to you in the future if we see a position matching your skill set. We encourage you to keep an eye on our career site for other roles you may find interesting.

In the meantime, we would love for you to stay connected with us and encourage you to follow us on our journey to build a bank the world loves to use on our social channels below. You can also get the latest news from us on our Company Blog, and read stories from our team on InsideN26.

Are you actively looking for your next opportunity?

We understand emails like this can be deflating and we don't want them to be. While this particular opportunity was not a fit, we appreciate your interest in us and want to do what we can to help you in your search.

Below are some job search resources we've curated that you might find helpful - blogs, tips, etc. We hope they may be of use.
